

---

Mats Bergström

Former GSK, Roche, Novartis, Consultant

---

Professor Bergstrom holds a degree in mathematics, physics and medical physics. He participated in the development of one of the first PET cameras at the Karolinska Institute in Stockholm.

Before joining Roche as senior expert in imaging sciences, Professor Bergstrom served as director of the preclinical laboratory at the Uppsala PET centre in Sweden, director of the PET program at Novartis, then director of biology and imaging expert at GSK. Currently retired and Member of Scientific Advisory Board at Oncodesign S.A. and consultant in Molecular Imaging to Pharmaceutical Industry.

Professor Bergstrom is a world-renowned expert on PET tracer research and has participated in clinical trials on over 80 new PET tracers and has over 300 scientific publications.